Rick is co-leader of the firm's Office and Healthcare Investment Management teams.

Prior to the 2018 merger of Madison Marquette and PMRG, he served as CEO and Chairman of PMRG and directed all aspects of PMRG's operations. He was instrumental in expanding PMRG's capabilities into a broad range of successful development and investment activities in the office, multi-family and medical office sectors. As an experienced leader in the commercial real estate industry, he brings a focused and metrics-driven approach to strategic investment management and development planning.

Rick went to PMRG after an 18-year career with Prentiss Properties. At Prentiss, he was responsible for directing all aspects of management and leasing of a national portfolio that included premier projects such as Dallas' Bank One Center, Franklin Square in Washington, D.C., the Atlantic Center in Atlanta, 601 California in San Francisco, 6500 Wilshire in Los Angeles, and Burnett Plaza in Fort Worth. His initial work with the firm focused on property management and leasing with responsibility for its 42 million square-foot portfolio.

Rick earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree from The University of Texas at Austin. He is a certified public accountant. Rick is also a member of the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM), the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA), the Urban Land Institute (ULI), and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
